Step back in time and feel the history of this beautiful inviting home. A wedding gift that was built with Love and Care. This home was complete somewhere around 1895 by James Garnett for his lovely bride, Lena. Their wedding photos still hang in the foyer to give you a glimpse into the history of this home. This two story frame home welcomes you with a wrap around porch. Upon entering the home you will notice the original hardwood flooring, baseboards, door trim have been well maintained. The now formal living room was once the law office of Mr. Garnett and offers a separate entrance, bay window with original stained glass topper, gas fireplace with beautiful handcrafted wood mantel and brass door knobs. The first floor bedroom offers a spacious closet along with an old fireplace that could house a set of gas logs and plenty of natural light. The formal dining room has the feel of elegance and charm and is easily accessible from the formal living room, kitchen and hallway. There is a wood burning stove situated in the dining room along with plenty of storage options.
